

Location

Useful links to transport options

Cambridge is readily accessible to international and UK residents by air, road and rail.

By Road

The Møller Centre is situated under 1 mile from the M11 motorway, providing direct links with London and the M25, and via the A1(M), M6 and M1 motorways to the Midlands and the North. The city of London is 55 miles by car. There is ample free car parking on site at the Centre. Plan your route with:

- RAC Route Planner <http://route.rac.co.uk/>
- AA Traffic News http://www.theaa.com/travelwatch/travel_news.jsp
- Highways Agency Traffic Reports <http://www.trafficengland.com/TCC/>

By Rail

The lines from London's Kings Cross and Liverpool Street stations provide rapid access from London in less than one hour. Cambridge has a direct connection to London Stansted airport, and via Peterborough to the north and midlands.

- The Trainline <http://www.thetrainline.com/default.asp?>
- National Rail Enquiry Service <http://www.nationalrail.co.uk/> 08457 484950

By taxi

Taxis can be pre-booked into Cambridge City Centre and other destinations. Please enquire at our Reception for further details.

By air

- London Stansted Airport 28 miles <http://www.baa.co.uk/main/airports/stansted> 0870 0000303
- London Heathrow 71 miles <http://www.baa.co.uk/main/airports/heathrow> 0870 0000123
- London Gatwick 95 miles <http://www.baa.co.uk/main/airports/gatwick> 0870 0002468
- London Luton 39 miles <http://www.london-luton.co.uk> 01582 405100
- Cambridge City Airport 4 miles <http://www.cambridgecityairport.com> (for domestic and private aircraft) 01223 373737

By coach

Regular coach services run from all major cities and airports to Cambridge:

- National Express <http://www.nationalexpress.com> 08705 808080

By helicopter

If you wish to arrive by helicopter please contact Reception on 01223 465500 to make arrangements for landing in the grounds

Travelling by bus within Cambridge

Cambridge has a network of buses run by Stagecoach. The buses that run along Madingley Road are the Citi 4/Uni 4 and the Madingley Road Park and Ride bus (alight at Grange Road or JJ Thompson Avenue). Buses running along Huntingdon Road are the Citi 5/ Citi 6 (alight at Storey's Way). From these routes it is a short walk to The Møller Centre.

There are no direct buses from the railway station to The Møller Centre. Take a Citi 1 or Citi 3 to the city centre (Drummer Street) and from there change to a Citi 4 or the Madingley Road Park and Ride.

For further information on bus travel in Cambridge and timetables visit <http://www.stagecoachbus.com/cambridge/timetables.php>

